100 YEARS OF SCOUTING
Celebrating the Adventure ★ Continuing the Journey

Did you know....according to Wikipedia, the Canonsburg Fourth of July Parade celebrating Independence Day, is the second-largest Fourth of July parade in Pennsylvania, second only to Philadelphia, despite Canonsburg having only 8,607 residents. 50,000 to 60,000 people usually attend. The parade starts on Morganza Road and runs down the length of Pike Street, heading westward, for approximately 1.5 miles. Read more about the parade on Wikipedia at:
